
Three new kidnapping victims in Port-au-Prince

Port-au-Prince, May 25, 2005 (AHP)- Two students were kidnapped this Wednesday by armed individuals in Fontamara 47, south of the capital.

According to witnesses, this double kidnapping took place as the two children from the Clesca family were in a vehicle on their way to school.

Their parents condemned this action, saying they are filled with consternation.

They are waiting for some signal from the kidnappers in hopes of being able to recover their children as quickly as possible.

In addition, the wife of a well-known doctor was also abducted this Wednesday on the Chemin des Dalles by armed individuals, according to radio stations in the capital.

AHP May 25, 2005 2:30 PM