Hastings to Haiti Presents

Law and Justice in Haiti

Thursday, October 23, 2008
4:30 p.m., ARC
200 McAllister St., San Francisco, CA 94102

Keynote Address

Fr. Jomanas Eustache, the Dean and founder of Hastings' sister law school, École Supérieure de Droit de Jérémie, will speak about the importance of law and justice in a country like Haiti.

Accountability and Reparations in Haiti

Moderator: Professor Naomi Roht-Arriaza

Brian Concannon Jr., Director and founder of the Institute for Justice & Democracy in Haiti will speak about the recent Inter-American Court judgment in the case of Yvonne Neptune, Haiti's former Prime Minister;

Mario Joseph, Haitian Human Rights Lawyer, Director and founder of the Bureau des Avocats Internationaux will speak about the Raboteau Massacre reparations and recent dispersal in Haiti;

Moira Feeney, Hastings alumna and former staff attorney at the Center for Justice & Accountability will speak about the victories in the U.S. lawsuits against Toto Constant and Jean Dorélien;

Reception to follow in the ARC co-hosted by the Office of the Academic Dean

Co-sponsored by the Black Law Students Association, Hastings International & Comparative Law Review, Hastings International & Comparative Law Society, Hastings Public Interest Law Foundation, Hastings for Race and Poverty Law, Hastings La Raza, Hastings National Lawyers Guild Chapter