

COMMEMORATE DESSALINES' DEATH ON OCTOBER 22

October 17, 1806 - October 17, 2006 will mark the 200th anniversary since the reactionary forces murdered the founder of the nation, Jean Jacques Dessalines. To commemorate the death of this great hero, the National Organization of Haitian Living Abroad will organize a conference on Sunday October 22, 2006 at 9:30 am in Providence Rhode Island.

After the conference, we will walk to the nearby Bicentennial Place where the monument of Toussaint and Dessalines is located; which is in Roger Williams Park, the 5th largest park in the United States. At that time, we will lay a wreath in honor of the father of the nation, the Emperor Jean Jacques Dessalines.
