March 8, 2007 International Women's Day

PRESS RELEASE

We would like to take advantage of the occasion of International Women's Day to denounce the bad living conditions of poor Haitian women.

Many of the women from the popular neighborhoods have been arrested and have never appeared before a judge. Some of them do not even have family to bring them food at the prison.

The rights of domestic servants are not respected.

Women working in the factories are subject to all kinds of exploitation.

Poor women are subject to violence at men's hands without having anywhere to go to file complaints. Look at what happened to Ginou Mondesir. We take this opportunity to ask the Haitian Government to pursue this case to the very end.

Finally, we would like to ask the Minister of Women's Affairs, Ms. Marie Laurence Jocelyn Lassègue, if she is not the Minister for all women; if she does not have on her agenda the political prisoners' wives and the women who live in the poor neighborhoods.

NÒT POU LAPRES

N ap pwofite jounen jodi a pou nou denonse move sitiasyon fanm Ayisyenn pòv yo ap viv anndan peyi Dayiti.

Anpil fanm nan katye popilè yo te jwenn arestasyon yo et yo pa janm pase devan jij. Gen ladan yo ki pa menm gen fanmi pou pote manje pou yo.

Dwa bònn kap travay kay moun pa respekte

Medanm nan faktori yo ap sibi tout kalte eksplwatasyon.

Fanm pòv yo ap sibi vyolans anba men gason san yo pa gen yon kote yo ka ale pote plent. Gade sa ki te rive Ginou Mondezi. Nou pwofite mande leta ayisyen pou rive jiskobou ak dosye sa.

Pou fini, n ap mande Minis Kondisyon Feminin lan, Madan Marie Laurence Jocelyn Lassègue, si se pa minis tout fanm li ye. Si nan ajanda l, li pa gen fanm madan prizonye politik yo ak fanm kap viv nan katye popilè yo.
