

Haiti One Year Later: Human Rights & Development After the Earthquake

Wednesday, January 19, 2011 4:00 PM

Boston Bar Association - 16 Beacon Street, Boston, MA

Description:

January 12, 2011 will mark the one-year anniversary of the devastating earthquake in Haiti. Hundreds of thousands of people were killed and approximately 1 million were left homeless. As the Haitian people have struggled to rebuild over the past year, the events of January 2010 have set forth numerous debates on human rights and development, humanitarian aid, and U.S. immigration policy. Please join our esteemed panelists Brian Concannon, Institute for Justice & Democracy in Haiti, Donna Barry, Partners in Health, Bill Graves, Graves & Doyle, and Manolia Charlotin, Boston Haitian Reporter, as we look at these and other issues.

Sponsoring Section/Committee(s):

International Public Law, Policy and Human Rights

Immigration Law Section

Speakers:

Brian Concannon

Institute for Justice and Democracy in Haiti

Donna Barry

Partners In Health

William E. Graves Jr.

Graves & Doyle

Manolia Charlotin

Boston Haitian Reporter

sign me up

Contact: Patricia Johnson

pjohnson@bostonbar.org

