

"A phenomenal contribution to Haitian history, politics [and] culture...both before and after the earthquake." – Edwidge Danticat

Panel | Q&A | Book Signing
Light Refreshments to Follow

Join us for the New England book launch of

Tectonic Shifts: Haiti Since the Earthquake

a new book that captures diverse perspectives from Haiti scholars, activists, and journalists

Friday, February 3, 2012
6:30 – 9:00 pm

Starr Auditorium
Harvard Kennedy School of Government
79 John F. Kennedy Street, Cambridge
(2nd floor, Belfer Building – enter from Eliot Street)

Two Years Later: A New Narrative on Haiti

Manolia Charlotin, Editor & Business Manager, Boston Haitian Reporter
Brian Concannon, Director of the Institute of Justice & Democracy in Haiti
Valerie Kaussen, Associate Professor, University of Missouri
Jane Regan, Multimedia Journalist currently teaching journalism in Haiti
Mark Schuller, Assistant Professor, York College (CUNY)
Patrick Sylvain, Haitian Language & Culture Instructor, Brown University

Co-Hosted by Boston Haitian Reporter | Haiti Caucus at HKS | HGSE for Haiti
Sponsored by Kennedy School Student Government
Free Admission – RSVP to HGSEforHaiti@gmail.com