

Self-Defense Workshop for Haitian Women and Girls

Where: Bureau des Avocats Internationaux (BAI)
No. 3, 2eme Impasse Lavaud (LaLue)
B.P. 19048, Port-au-Prince, Haiti

When: Saturday, January 15, 2011 at 10am

Since the earthquake of January 12, 2010, women and girls living in camps have experienced an epidemic of rapes. In the camps where over 1 million people still live, there is inadequate lighting, inadequate security, and little privacy.

The government of Haiti and international organizations are failing to protect the women and girls of Haiti from sexual violence and rape.

If the Haitian government and ONGs won't protect you, learn how to better protect yourself!

We invite women and girls to join us at the Bureau des Avocats Internationaux (BAI) in Port-au-Prince on Saturday, January 15 at 10am for a self-defense workshop. This workshop will teach you some basic and powerful ways to defend yourself from violence.

The women and girls of Haiti demand an end to sexual violence and rapes.
Enough is enough!
