

American Jewish World Service invites you to attend the next program in our lecture series

THE SAN FRANCISCO BAY AREA GLOBAL JUSTICE SALON

Dinner and conversation featuring prominent scholars and guest speakers on today's most pressing issues in the developing world

Aftershocks: Ongoing Crisis in Haiti

Co-sponsored by the Institute for Justice & Democracy in Haiti and the Bureau des Avocats Internationaux

Despite the international community's vow to "build Haiti back better" after the 2010 earthquake, little has changed for Haiti's poor. Haitians remain vulnerable to natural disasters like Tropical Storm Isaac and currently suffer from the largest cholera epidemic in the world. Join us to learn how AJWS's grantees are working to turn Haiti's crisis around.

ABOUT THE SPONSORS

Inspired by Judaism's commitment to justice, American Jewish World Service (AJWS) works to realize human rights and end poverty in the developing world. AJWS supports 400 grassroots organizations worldwide, including 40 in Haiti, which are focused on rebuilding their communities, re-establishing the local agriculture economy and giving Haitian civil society a strong voice in the country's future.

The Institute for Justice & Democracy in Haiti (IJDH) partners with the people of Haiti in their non-violent struggle for democracy, justice, and human rights, by distributing objective and accurate information on human rights conditions in Haiti, pursuing legal cases, and cooperating with human rights groups. They seek the restoration of the rule of law and democracy in the short term, and work for the long-term sustainable change necessary to avert Haiti's next crisis.
