

Film Screening and Discussion of

BASEBALL IN THE TIME OF CHOLERA

Thursday, October 25th at 5:30 PM

A young baseball player and a Haitian lawyer representing victims of the cholera epidemic struggle for survival and justice in Haiti

PANELISTS

Mario Joseph

Director of the Bureau des Avocats Internationaux and lead attorney on the Cholera case

Marie St. Fleur

Esq., Boston Mayor Thomas Menino's Chief of Advocacy and Strategic Investments

Jack Regan

Partner and Co-chair of the Pro Bono and Community Service Committee, Wilmer Cutler Pickering Hale and Dorr, LLP

Rishi Rattan

MD, Chair of Advocacy, Physicians for Haiti

Brian Concannon Jr.

Director of Institute for Justice & Democracy in Haiti (moderator)

Location

Boston Bar Association
16 Beacon Street
Boston, MA 02108

RSVP

Hannah Surowitz
IJDH Development Manager
(857) 264-0855
hannah@ijdh.org

BOSTON LAWYERS FOR JUSTICE IN HAITI

Boston Bar
ASSOCIATION