

BASEBALL
IN THE
TIME OF CHOLERA

Film screening & discussion
Brian Concannon, Jr., Director
Institute for Justice & Democracy in Haiti

Wednesday, November 28
6:10 PM
Room 128

As the cholera epidemic rages in Haiti, the UN denies mounting evidence of its responsibility for introducing the disease. The film tells two stories—one involving Joseph, a young baseball player who is deeply affected by the epidemic, and the other chronicling the efforts of a Haitian lawyer to win compensation for the victims. As the disease spreads, their stories intersect in the struggle for survival and justice.

Special Jury Mention, Tribeca Film Festival's Best Documentary Short category

Sponsored by the Orville H. Schell, Jr. Center for International Human Rights