

SAT, MAY 19, 2018

12:00 - 4:00 p.m.

- WE DEMAND:
- Trump apologize to countries he called “shitholes”
  - Permanent residency for all TPS holders
  - U.S. & UN reparations to Haiti
  - Stop police profiling & terror against black & brown communities
  - UN occupation police out of Haiti
  - Stop U.S. meddling in Haiti elections.

On Jan. 11, the eve of the 8th anniversary of Haiti’s 2010 earthquake, President Donald Trump called Haiti a “shithole” country, along with El Salvador and African nations. He continues racist and anti-immigrant policies and provocative statements, especially against black and brown peoples.

In response, Haitians, Africans, and Latin Americans from New York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Florida, Georgia, and Canada will converge on Washington, DC the day after May 18, Haitian Flag Day, on the anniversary of Malcolm X’s birthday.
