

Position Title: Volunteer Designer
Start Date: Ongoing
Location: United States

Institute for Justice and Democracy in Haiti

The Institute for Justice and Democracy in Haiti (IJDH) is a U.S.-based human rights non-profit organization. IJDH works in partnership with its Haiti-based sister organization, the law firm, Bureau des Avocats Internationaux (BAI), bringing together litigation, advocacy, training, and grassroots solidarity to tackle the root causes of injustice, which impacts basic human rights in Haiti. Founded in 1995, BAI is a public interest law firm that has worked for over two decades in constitutional and international human rights law. In 2004, BAI staff established IJDH as a U.S.-based solidarity organization and partnership of human rights advocates in Haiti and the U.S. For over a combined 25 years, BAI and IJDH have achieved outsized impact for justice and human rights, and addressing the challenges that affect how the legal system protects, delivers justice, and safeguards rights, in Haiti. For more information about IJDH's work across rule of law, access to justice, and accountability please visit: <https://ijdh.org>.

Position

The Institute for Justice and Democracy in Haiti (IJDH) is currently seeking a volunteer designer to support a website development project to implement a new information architecture and migrate existing content into an updated site. The organization is currently looking for candidates with excellent visualization skills, and experience with WordPress, implementing updates to website architecture, and content migration. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, it is planned for the volunteer-ship to be entirely remote. The volunteer designer will work directly with IJDH leadership on this project.

Qualifications

The website development project is intended as a 6-8week volunteer-ship beginning in August 2021. Ideal candidates will have the following qualifications:

- Ability to execute design stages and test across from concept to hand-off
- Excellent visual design skills and experience with UX design
- Proven experience with website and graphic design
- Proficiency in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript
- Strong communication skills
- Able to work independently

Application Procedure

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, and portfolio electronically to [hiring@ijdh.org](mailto: hiring@ijdh.org) by August 4, 2021. Please include "Volunteer Designer" in the subject line. Applications for the position will be reviewed on a rolling basis.

###